8. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the prior allegations as if set forth herein.

9. On or about October 02, 2019, at all times material hereto, Plaintiff was lawfully on the premises of the Store for the purpose of purchasing groceries therein.

10. At that time and place, and at all times material thereto, Plaintiff was traveling in the frozen foods and meat aisle along the backside of the Store.

11. At that time and place, Plaintiff was the Defendant's invitee.

12. At that time and place, within the Store, there existed a display of fruit flavored freezable pops, situated on a wooden pallet.

13. At that time and place, the display of fruit flavored freezable pops was located in a cardboard box situated on top of the wooden pallet.

14. At that time and place, the wooden pallet was situated between the short sides of two rectangular horizontal chest type fridge units holding steaks and other meat and frozen food products located on the horizontal back aisle of the Store.

15. At that time and place, the wooden pallet underneath the display of fruit flavored freezable pops protruded from underneath the box of fruit flavored freezable pops at a low level, close to the ground, and into the walkway of the aisle.

16. The protrusion of the wooden pallet and/or the box was low to the ground and was not readily observable to invitees like Plaintiff.

17. At that time and place, the display of fruit flavored freezable pops and the positioning of the pallet and/or box [hereinafter, “the Safety Hazard”] constituted an unsafe condition within the interior of the store.

18. The Safety Hazard was not open and obvious.

19. At the time of the occurrence and injury to Plaintiff, Defendant operated the Store by and through its agents, servants and employees acting at all times material hereto within the course and scope of their agency and/or employment.

21. Defendant, through its employees and/or agents caused, created, and/or otherwise allowed the Safety Hazard to exist.

22. At that time and place, the Safety Hazard was not readily visible to invitees, including individuals in the position of the Plaintiff, traveling in the frozen foods and meat aisle along the backside of the store, and was likely to cause them to trip and fall.

23. At that time and place, as a result of the Safety Hazard, the area of the Store in that location was not reasonably safe for the foreseeable use by invitees, including Plaintiff.

24. At that time and place, the Safety Hazard was likely to cause invitees, like Plaintiff, to trip and fall.

25. At that time and place, Plaintiff was unaware of the Safety Hazard.

26. At that time and place, there were no visual warnings present to notify invitees, including Plaintiff, of the presence of the Safety Hazard.

27. Defendant, and its employees and/or agents, did not warn Plaintiff of the presence of the Safety Hazard.

28. The Safety Hazard was created by, known by or, in the exercise of reasonable care should have been known by Defendant, and its employees and agents.

29. At that time and place, and at all times material hereto, Defendant, by and through its employees and/or agents, had actual or constructive notice of, knew, should have known, or had reason to know that the Safety Hazard was not safe, that it was dangerous, defective, and constituted a hazard, and that it was in need of attention. At that time and place, the Safety Hazard had existed for sufficient time that if Defendant had used ordinary care to inspect the Store for unsafe conditions, it should have known of its existence well in advance of Plaintiff's fall with sufficient time to correct the Safety Hazard or provide warning.

30. At that time and place, Defendant, by and through its agents and/or employees, knew or should have known that the Safety Hazard required attention to return the area of the Store in question to a condition of reasonable safety.

31. At that time and place, Defendant, by and through its agents and/or employees, knew or should have known that it needed to warn invitees walking through the Store of the presence of the Safety Hazard.

33. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant had a duty not to cause hazardous conditions in the Store that would create an unreasonable risk of danger to persons walking through the Store, including Plaintiff.

34. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant had a duty to maintain, repair, correct and/or remove any hazardous and unsafe conditions in the Store, so that persons using the Store, including Plaintiff, could do so with reasonable safety.

35. At all times relevant to this action, Defendant had a duty to use ordinary care to warn of hazardous and unsafe conditions in the Store, so that persons using the Store, including Plaintiff, could do so with reasonable safety.

36. Defendant, by and through its agents and/or employees, did not use ordinary care to maintain the Store in a reasonably safe condition.

37. Defendant, by and through its agents and/or employees, did not reasonably inspect the Store for conditions that would create an unreasonable risk of danger to persons using the Store, including Plaintiff, and therefore carelessly, negligently, and recklessly subjected Plaintiff to an unreasonable risk of injury.

38. Defendant, by and through its agents and/or employees, did not maintain, repair, remove and/or correct the Safety Hazard within a reasonable amount of time after causing and/or creating the Safety Hazard, and therefore carelessly, negligently, and recklessly subjected Plaintiff to an unreasonable risk of injury.

39. Defendant, by and through its agents and/or employees, did not warn persons using the Store, including Plaintiff, of the presence of the Safety Hazard and therefore carelessly, negligently, and recklessly subjected Plaintiff to an unreasonable risk of injury.

40. At that time and place, October 02, 2019, Plaintiff tripped on the Safety Hazard and fell, sustaining serious injuries.

41. At that time and place, the Store was in possession of an operating video surveillance camera monitoring the area of the Plaintiff's fall.

42. At that time and place, the video surveillance camera captured video footage of the Plaintiff's fall.

43. Directly following the fall, the Plaintiff notified the manager of the Store, Eric N. Blankenship, of her fall.

44. Plaintiff subsequently filled out an incident report at the Store regarding her fall on October 02, 2019.
